Claim for Real Property Tax Credit

Real Property Tax Credit

If your household gross income was $18,000 or less, you may be entitled to a credit on your New York State income tax return for part of the real property taxes or rent you paid during 1986. If you do not have to file a return, you can file for a refund of the credit by using Form IT-214 only.

Who Qualifies

Homeowners — To qualify for the real property tax credit, you have to meet all of these conditions for the taxable year 1986:

- Your household gross income was $18,000 or less.
- You occupied the same New York residence for six months or more.
- You or your spouse paid real property taxes on your residence.
- You were a New York State resident for all of 1986.
- You could not be claimed as a dependent on someone else's federal income tax return.
- Your residence was not completely exempted from real property taxes.
- The current market value of all your real property (house, garage, land, etc.) was $85,000 or less.
- Any rent you received for nonresidential use of your residence was 20% or less of the total rent you received.

Renters — To qualify for the real property tax credit, you have to meet all of these conditions for the taxable year 1986:

- Your household gross income was $18,000 or less.
- You occupied the same New York residence for six months or more.
- You or your spouse paid rent for your residence.
- You were a New York State resident for all of 1986.
- You could not be claimed as a dependent on someone else's federal income tax return.
- Your residence was not completely exempted from real property taxes.
- The average monthly rent you and other members of your household paid was $450 or less, not counting charges for heat, gas, electricity, furnishings or board.

If you meet all of these conditions, you are a qualified taxpayer and may be entitled to the real property tax credit. You cannot file a real property tax credit claim form for a taxpayer who has died.

Which Form to File

To claim the real property tax credit, complete Form IT-214, Claim for Real Property Tax Credit, and attach it to Form IT-200 or Form IT-201. (You cannot claim this credit on Fast Form IT-100, IT-100-R or IT-100-S.) If neither you nor your spouse has to file a New York return but you qualify to claim the credit, just file Form IT-214 to claim your credit payment.

If more than one member of your household qualifies for the credit, each must file a separate Form IT-214. However, if you are married and filing a joint tax return, you must file a joint claim on Form IT-214.

When to File

If you are filing a New York State income tax return, attach Form IT-214 to it and file both as soon as you can after January 1, 1987 but not later than April 15, 1987.

If you don't have to file a New York State income tax return, file Form IT-214 as soon as you can after January 1, 1987.

Definitions

All who share your residence, and its furnishings, facilities and accommodations are members of your household, whether they are related to you or not.

Household members also include tenants, sub-tenants, roomers or boarders if they are related to you in any of the following ways:

- A son, daughter or a descendent of either.
- A stepson or stepdaughter.
- A brother, sister, stepbrother or stepsister.
- A father, mother or an ancestor of either.
- A stepfather or stepmother.
- A niece or nephew.
- An aunt or uncle.
- A son-in-law, daughter-in-law, father-in-law, mother-in-law, brother-in-law or sister-in-law.

No one can be a member of more than one household at one time.

Household gross income is the total of the following income items that you and all members of your household received:

- Federal adjusted gross income (even if you don't have to file a federal return).
- New York State additions to federal adjusted gross income. For a list of these additions, see Publication 308, Real Property Tax Credit, or the instructions for Form IT-201.
- Any part of the following items of income not included in either of the above:
 - Pensions and annuities, including railroad retirement benefits, all payments received under the federal Social Security Act and veterans' disability pensions.
 - All state unemployment insurance payments.
 - Support money.
 - Gain from the sale or exchange of property.
 - Income earned abroad exempted by Section 911 of the Internal Revenue Code.
 - Supplemental Security Income (SSI) payments.
 - Nontaxable interest received from New York State, its agencies, instrumentalities, public corporations or political subdivisions.
 - Workers' compensation.

- The gross amount of loss-of-time insurance. (For example, workers' compensation, an accident or health insurance policy, disability benefits received under a "no-fault" automobile policy, etc.).
- Cash public assistance and relief, other than medical assistance for the needy. (For example, amount received from the Home Energy Assistance Program (HEAP), cash grants to clients, emergency aid to adults, value of food vouchers received by clients, etc.).
- Nontaxable strike benefits.

Household gross income does not include food stamps, medicare, medicaid, scholarships, grants, surplus food or other relief in kind.

A residence is a dwelling that you own or rent, and up to one acre of land around it. It must be located in New York State. If your residence is on more than one acre of land, only the amount of real property taxes or rent paid that applies to the residence and only one acre around it may be used to figure the credit. (If you do not know how much rent or real property tax you paid for the one acre surrounding your residence, contact your local assessor.) Each residence within a multiple dwelling unit may qualify. A condominium, a cooperative or a rental within a single dwelling is also a residence. A trailer or mobile home that is used only for residential purposes and is defined as real property under the Real Property Tax Law is also a residence.

Real property taxes paid are all real property taxes, special ad valorem levies and assessments levied and paid upon a residence owned or previously owned by a qualified taxpayer (or spouse, if the spouse occupied the residence for at least six months) during the taxable year. You may elect to include real property taxes that are exempted from tax under Section 467 (for persons 65 and older) of the Real Property Tax Law (veterans' tax exemption does not qualify). If you do not know this amount, contact your local assessor.

Real property taxes paid also include any real estate taxes allowed (or which would be allowable if the taxpayer had filed returns on a cash basis) as a deduction for tenant-stockholders in a cooperative housing corporation under Section 216 of the Internal Revenue Code.

If any part of your residence was owned by someone who was not a member of your household, include only the real property taxes paid that apply to the part you and other qualified members of your household own.

If your residence was part of a larger unit, include only the amount of real property taxes paid that can be reasonably applied to your residence.

If you owned and occupied more than one residence during the taxable year, add together the prorated part of real property taxes paid for the period you occupied each residence.

Rent constituting real property taxes paid is 25% of the adjusted rent paid on a New York residence during the taxable year after subtracting any charges for heat, gas, electricity, furnishings or board. If these charges are not separately stated, complete lines 20 through 23 of Schedule B of Form IT-214 to figure 25% of adjusted rent. Do not include any subsidized part of your rental charge in adjusted rent.

If any part of your residence was rented by someone who was not a member of your household, include in line 20 of Form IT-214 only the amount of rent you and members of your household paid.

If you moved from one rented residence to another rented residence during the taxable year, add 25% of adjusted rent paid for each residence.

Line-by-Line Instructions — Form IT-214

Print or type the information requested in the name and address box at the top of page 1. Enter your name, address, social security number and county of residence as of December 31, 1986. Married taxpayers enter both social security numbers. On the bottom line of the name and address box, enter the address of the New York residence that qualifies you for this credit if it is different from your mailing address. If not, enter the word "same" on this line. If you checked Box 2b "Yes", indicating that you or a member of your household was 65 or older on December 31, 1986, enter the Social Security Number of that person in the box "Qualifying Social Security Number." Enter "same" if it is your Social Security Number.

Line 1

If you were a resident of a nursing home or if your residence was completely exempted from property taxes in 1986, check the Yes box. If not, check the No box.

Generally, residents of nursing homes do not qualify for this credit because they share common living facilities (see definition of members of household). This situation causes all residents of a nursing home to be disqualified since they are all considered to be members of one household which usually exceeds the household gross income level of $18,000 and the average monthly rent level of $450. If you are a resident of a nursing home and you check the "Yes" box, do not file Form IT-214 unless you attach a statement explaining how your household does not exceed these two limitations.

Some public housing projects are completely exempt from paying real property taxes. Residents of those projects do not qualify for this credit. Find out if your project is completely exempt from paying real property taxes by asking the management of your project. If you live in a public housing project and check the "Yes" box on line 1, do not file Form IT-214.

Line 2a

Enter the number of members of your household, including yourself, who are filing a Form IT-214 for 1986. Count a joint claim filed by husband and wife as one Form IT-214. See the instructions for Line 15 if more than one member of your household is filing Form IT-214.

Line 2b

If any qualified member of your household was 65 or older on December 31, 1986, check the Yes box. If not, check the No box. Among other conditions (see Who Qualifies), a household member 65 or older must have paid real property taxes or rent to qualify for this credit.

Line 3a

If you were a New York State resident for all of 1986, check the Yes box. If not, check the No box.

Line 3b

If you occupied the same residence for six months or more during 1986, check the Yes box. If not, check the No box.

Line 4

If you owned real property and the current market value of that property is in excess of $85,000, check the Yes box. If not, check the No box. If the value of your property exceeds $85,000, stop; you do not qualify for this credit.

Line 5

If you can be claimed as a dependent on someone else's 1986 federal income tax return, check the Yes box. If not, check the No box.

If you checked a shaded box on line 3a, 3b, 4 or 5, stop; you do not qualify for this credit.

Line 6

If you owned your residence, check the Own box. If you paid rent for your residence, check the Rent box. If you owned your residence for part of the year and rented your residence for part of the year, check the Own box.

Complete Schedule A or B and Schedule C on page 2 of Form IT-214 before continuing with line 7.

Schedule A

Enter on lines 16 and 17 any county, city, town, village or school district taxes and assessments that you and all qualified members of your household paid during 1986 (do not include penalty and interest charges). Persons age 65 or older may enter on line 18 the amount exempted from taxation under Section 467 of the Real Property Tax Law (do not include the veterans' tax exemption). However, if you choose to make an entry on line 18, your credit, before limitation, will be only 25% (instead of 50%) of your eligible real property taxes. You may want to figure your credit both ways to see which results in the greater credit. Add lines 16 through 18 and enter the total on line 19. Transfer this amount to line 8 on page 1.

Schedule B

Enter on line 20 the total rent you and all members of your household paid; do not include any subsidized part of your rental charge. Figure the amounts to be entered on lines 21, 22 and 23. Transfer the amount on line 23 to line 8, page 1.

If the monthly average of your adjusted rent (line 22) was more than $450, stop; you do not qualify for this credit.

Schedule C

List the names and social security numbers of everyone, including yourself, who lived in your household in 1986. Also give the date of birth of any qualified household member who was 65 or older as of December 31, 1986. If you need more space, list additional names on a separate sheet and attach it to Form IT-214. Enter on line 24 the total number of household members.

Enter on line 25 the total federal adjusted gross income of you and all members of your household. If you or any member of your household do not have to file a federal return, include the amount that would be included in federal adjusted gross income if a federal return had been required.

Enter on line 26 the total additions to federal adjusted gross income required by Section 612(b) of the Tax Law. For a list of these additions, see Publication 308, Real Property Tax Credit, or the instructions for Form IT-201. Include the total of these additions that apply to you and all members of your household, even if a New York State income tax return is not required.

Enter on lines 27 through 32 the total of each type of income you and all members of your household received during 1986 that was not included on lines 25 and 26.

If someone was a member of your household for only part of the taxable year, include on lines 25 through 32 the income they received while they were a member of your household.

Add lines 25 through 32 and enter the total on line 33. Round this amount to the nearest whole dollar and transfer it to line 9 on page 1. If this amount is more than $18,000, stop; you do not qualify for this credit.

Line 7

If you qualify for an exemption from taxation under Section 467 of the Real Property Tax Law and elect to enter this exemption on line 18, check the Yes box. If not, check the No box.

Line 8

Real Property Taxes Paid or 25% of Adjusted Rent Paid

If you owned your residence for all of 1986, enter your real property taxes paid (from Schedule A line 19) on line 8.

If you rented your residence for all of 1986, enter 25% of your adjusted rent paid (from Schedule B line 23) on line 8.

If you owned your residence for part of the taxable year and rented your residence for part of the taxable year, add 25% of your adjusted rent paid (from Schedule B) to the prorated part of any charges you list on Schedule A. Enter this total on line 8.

Line 9

Transfer the total from Schedule C, line 33 to this line.

Line 10 Rate

Using the table following line 10, find the rate that applies to your household gross income and enter it on line 10.

Line 11

Multiply the amount on line 9 by the rate on line 10 and enter the result on line 11.

Line 12

Subtract line 11 from line 8 and enter the difference on line 12. If the amount on line 11 is more than the amount on line 8, stop; no credit is allowed.

Line 13

If you entered on line 18 any amount of taxes not paid due to the exemption for persons 65 or older (Section 467 of the Real Property Law), you must figure 25% of line 12 and enter the result on line 13. If you did not make an entry on line 18, figure 50% of line 12 and enter the result on line 13.

Line 14

Credit Limitation

Using the following table, find your credit limitation according to the amount of your household gross income (line 9) and the age of qualified household members (line 2b). Be careful to select your limitation from the proper column.

Are you checked:

If the amount on line 9 is:	YES on line 2b, enter on line 14:	NO on line 2b, enter on line 14:

Line 15

Real Property Tax Credit

The real property tax credit for your household is the amount on line 13 or line 14 — whichever is less. Enter the lesser amount on line 15.

If more than one member of your household is filing Form IT-214, divide the line 15 amount equally among all filers. You can divide the line 15 amount any way you want if you each agree to the amount of your share and attach a copy of the agreement to your Form IT-214. Enter only your share of the line 15 amount on your Form IT-214 (and on your return if you have to file one).

If you are married and filing a joint return, you do not have to divide the credit.

If you are filing a 1986 New York State income tax return, transfer your line 15 amount to Form IT-200, line 25 or Form IT-201, line 69.

Your credit will be subtracted from the amount of tax you owe. Any amount over the tax you owe will be refunded to you.

Sign Form IT-214 and attach it to the return you are filing.

If you pay someone to prepare Form IT-214, the paid preparer must also sign it and fill in the other blanks in the paid preparer's area. If someone prepares Form IT-214 for you and does not charge you, that person should not sign it.

If you are not filing a 1986 New York State income tax return, sign and date Form IT-214 and mail it to:

New York State Income Tax
W. A. Harriman Campus — REFUND '86
Albany, NY 12227-0125

Your real property tax credit payment will be mailed to you.

Collection of debts from your refund — We will keep all or part of your refund if you owe a federal, New York State, City of New York or City of Yonkers tax liability or past-due spousal or child support or if a judgment was filed against you because you have not repaid a student loan guaranteed by the New York State Higher Education Services Corporation or a national defense/national direct, health professions or nursing student loan provided to students at state-operated units of the State University of New York or the City University of New York. Any amount over your debt will be refunded. If you are married and you do not want to apply your part of the refund to your spouse's debt because you are not liable for it, attach a signed statement to that effect to your return and ask for your part of the refund. You cannot amend your return to disclaim your spouse's debt.

If you have any questions about whether you owe a federal, New York State, City of New York or City of Yonkers tax liability, past-due spousal or child support, whether you have repaid your HESC guaranteed or state or city university student loan, or about the amount owed, call or write to the agency shown below:
