Instructions

Schedule N should be completed by vendors providing the following services in New York City:

- parking, garaging or storing of motor vehicles at facilities other than garages that are part of premises occupied solely as private one- or two-family dwellings;
- all interior cleaning and maintenance services;
- credit rating and credit reporting services;
- interior decorating and design services;
- beauty, barbering, hair restoring, manicuring, pedicuring, electrolysis, massage services and similar services;
- charges from sales of services or for the use of weight control salons, health salons, gymnasiums, turkish baths, sauna baths and similar establishments;
- protective and detective services (except as noted below); and
- charges for occupancy of hotels, motels and similar establishments located within New York City.

A vendor who must file Schedule N must also complete Form ST-100, New York State and Local Quarterly Sales and Use Tax Return, reporting any other taxable receipts on Form ST-100, Part II. Instructions that apply to Form ST-100 also apply to Quarterly Schedule N.

Enter in the spaces provided your name, address, and sales tax identification number as they appear on the proaddressed Form ST-100.

Part I: All vendors who provide parking, garaging or storing of motor vehicles must complete both Section (A) and Section (B) of Part I.

any pier or other waterfront terminal or by a carrier of freight by water to perform services in such capacity on any pier or other waterfront terminal.

(A) Enter the information requested in Section (A) separately for each facility operated. The license number refers to the license issued for the facility by the New York City Department of Consumer Affairs (DCA). The licensed vehicle capacity refers to the capacity most recently authorized by DCA. The maximum daily rate refers to the cost of keeping a vehicle in a garage all day, not including overnight, as on file with DCA. At any facility where only residential parking is provided and where only a monthly rate is charged, the monthly rate should be entered in the Maximum Daily Rate column and should be identified as a monthly rate.

A vendor filing Schedule N who reports parking for more than six facilities should attach a separate schedule indicating the address, license number, licensed vehicle capacity, and maximum daily rate for each garage not listed in Part I, Section (A).

(B) Vendors providing parking, garaging or storing of motor vehicles within the counties of Bronx, Kings, Queens and Richmond should report receipts from the sale of such services on the New York City except Manhattan line in Section B. Receipts from the sale of these services within Manhattan should be reported in Section B on:

- The New York City Manhattan only - except line if the receipts are subject to tax at the combined rate of 18¼% or

- the New York City Manhattan residents line if the receipts are taxable at the combined rate of 10¼% because the service is provided to a Manhattan resident who furnishes the vendor with a validated certificate of exemption issued by the New York City Department of Finance (for those Manhattan residents who qualify for the 8% exemption).

Part II: Vendors providing cleaning and maintenance services, credit rating and reporting services, interior decorating and designing services, miscellaneous personal services and protective and detective services * within New York City should report receipts from these services on the appropriate line in Part II of this form.

All receipts from interior cleaning and maintenance services in New York City must be reported on Schedule N. Receipts from contracts for a period of less than 30 days (or for occasional cleaning or maintenance) must be reported on the NYC - Cleaning and Maintenance Services (less than 30 Days) line. Receipts from contracts for a period of 30 days or more must be reported on the NYC - Cleaning and Maintenance Services (30 days or more) line.

* Protective and detective services do not include services performed by a port watchman licensed by the Waterfront Commission of New York Harbor. The term port watchman includes a watchman, gateman, roundsman, detective, guard, guardian or protector of property employed by the operator of Part III: Operators of hotels, motels and similar establishments within New York City should report receipts from hotel room occupancy on the appropriate line of this section. Receipts from the first 90 days of occupancy are subject to a combined state and local sales tax rate of 8¼%. Receipts for the 91st through 180th days of occupancy are subject to the 4% local tax.

After 180 consecutive days of occupancy the room occupant is not required to pay either state or local sales tax on the charge for room occupancy.

All other sales by hotels, motels, etc. (restaurant sales, gift shop sales, etc.) subject to state and local sales tax should be reported on Form ST-100, Part II or on the appropriate schedules. Sales subject to the 5% special hotel occupancy tax must be reported on Schedule A that accompanies the regular quarterly sales tax return (ST-100). Vendors who file Schedule N and who provide hotel occupancy of rooms or suites of rooms at rates of $100 or more per day must also file Schedule A with their regular sales tax return.

Taxable receipts - column (c)

Report on each appropriate line the taxable receipts for the type of tax imposed by the locality shown on that line. Enter the sum of the amounts in column (c) on the Totals line.

Purchases subject to use tax — Part II only - column (d)

Report on the appropriate lines any purchases of decorating and designing services or protective and detective services that are subject to the tax but upon which the tax has not been paid. Enter the total amount reported in this column on the last line in Part II. Include this amount on Form ST-100, Part I, box C.

Use Form ST-100 (or other appropriate schedule) to report the use tax due on other taxable items upon which the tax has not been paid.

Tax - column (e)

Compute the tax by multiplying the amount in column (c) by the combined state and local tax rate shown in column (b).

Enter the sum of the amounts reported in column (e) on the Totals line. Include this total in the amount to be reported on Form ST-100, Part I, line 1.

Credits

Credits that can be identified by locality should be taken on the appropriate line on the front of this form. Show net credits (negative amounts) in parentheses. Credits taken on this form should be included in the total amount entered on Form ST-100, Part I, box D.
