

Instructions for Form CT-32

Banking Corporation Franchise Tax Return

Tax Law — Article 32

CT-32-I

Who Must File

Article 32 of the Tax Law imposes a franchise tax on banking corporations for the privilege of exercising their corporation franchise or doing business in New York State in a corporate or organized capacity for all or any part of their tax year. It also imposes the tax on bank holding companies when included in a combined return. Except for corporations described in section 1453(l), corporations liable to tax under Article 33 are not subject to tax under Article 32.

Banking corporations include the following:

A. New York State banking corporations —

Any corporation organized under the laws of New York State which is authorized to do or is doing a banking business is a banking corporation. Such corporations include, but are not limited to, commercial banks, trust companies, limited purpose trust companies, subsidiary trust companies, savings banks, savings and loan associations, agreement corporations, and the New York Business Development Corporation. Also included as a banking corporation is the New York State Mortgage Facilities Corporation.

B. Banking corporations organized under the laws of another state or country —

Any corporation organized under the laws of another state or country which is doing a banking business is a banking corporation. Such corporations include, but are not limited to, commercial banks, trust companies, savings banks, savings and loan associations and agreement corporations.

C. Banking corporations organized under the laws of the United States —

Any national banking association, federal savings bank, federal savings and loan association and any other corporation organized under the authority of the United States (including an Edge Act corporation) which is doing a banking business, is a banking corporation. Also, every production credit association organized under the Federal Farm Credit Act of 1933 which is doing a banking business and all of whose stock held by the Federal Production Credit Corporation has been retired is a banking corporation.

D. Corporations owned by a Bank or a Bank Holding Company —

- Any corporation principally engaged in a business which:
- might lawfully be conducted by a corporation subject to Article 3 of the New York Banking Law or by a national banking association, or
 - is so closely related to banking or managing or controlling banks as to be a proper incident thereto as defined in section 4(c)(8) of the Federal Bank Holding Company Act of 1956, as amended, is a banking corporation, if its voting stock is 65% or more owned or controlled directly or indirectly by a banking corporation described above or by a bank holding company. However, a 65% or more owned corporation which is principally engaged in a business described in Section 183, 184 or 186 of the Tax Law (such as a telegraph, telephone, trucking, railroad, gas or electric business) is not subject to Article 32 of the Tax Law if any of its business receipts from that business are from outside the corporation that controls it.

A 65% or more owned corporation subject to tax under Article 9-A for its tax year ending in 1984 may make a one time election to continue to be taxable under Article 9-A. This election remains in effect until revoked by the taxpayer. In no event can the election or revocation of the election be for part of the tax year. The election is made by the filing of a tax return pursuant to Article 9-A of the Tax Law and the revocation is made by the filing of a tax return pursuant to Article 32 of the Tax Law.

License and Maintenance Fees

Foreign bank holding companies and 65% or more owned foreign banking corporations (as defined under Who Must File, Item D) which are subject to tax under Article 32, must pay a license fee (Form CT-240) and maintenance fee imposed by section 181 of the Tax Law.

Independently Procured Insurance Tax

If you purchase or renew a taxable insurance contract from an insurer not authorized to transact business in New York State under a Certificate of Authority from the Superintendent of Insurance, you will be liable for a tax of 3.6% of the premium. See Form CT-33-D or TSB-M-90(9)C for more information.

Definition of Doing Business Within New York State

The phrase doing business includes all activities which occupy the time and labor of people for profit. In determining whether or not a corporation is doing business in New York State, consideration is given to such factors as: the nature, continuity, frequency and regularity of the activities of a corporation in New York State; the location of the corporation's offices and other places of business; the employment in New York State of agents, officers and employees of the corporation and other relevant factors. Activities which constitute doing business in New York State include: operating a branch, loan production office, representative office or a bona fide office in New York State. Activities which do not constitute doing business in New York State include: occasionally acquiring a security interest in real or personal property located in New York State or occasionally acquiring title to property located in New York State through foreclosure of a security interest.

Definition of Banking Business

The phrase banking business means the business a corporation may be created to do under Article 3 (Banks and Trust Companies), Article 3-B (Subsidiary Trust Companies), Article 5 (Foreign Banking Corporations and National Banks), Article 5-A (New York Business Development Corporation), Article 5-C (Interstate Branching), Article 6 (Savings Banks) or Article 10 (Savings and Loan Associations) of the New York State Banking Law or the business a corporation is authorized to do by such articles.

With respect to a national banking association, federal savings bank, federal savings and loan association or production credit association, the phrase banking business means the business a national banking association, federal savings bank, federal savings and loan association or production credit association may be created to do or is authorized to do under the laws of the United States or the laws of New York State. The phrase banking business also means such business as any corporation organized under the authority of the United States has authority to do which is substantially similar to the business which a corporation may be created to do under Article 3, 3-B, 5, 5-A, 5-C, 6 or 10 of the New York State Banking Law or any business which a corporation is authorized to do by such article.

Definition of a Bank Holding Company

The following are bank holding companies:

- a corporation or association subject to Article 3-a of the New York Banking Law,
- a corporation or association registered under the Federal Bank Holding Company Act of 1956, as amended,
- a corporation or association registered as a savings and loan holding company (excluding a diversified savings and loan holding company) under the Federal National Housing Act as amended, and
- a publicly traded partnership treated as a corporation under section 7704 of the Internal Revenue Code (IRC).

Change of Business Information

If there have been any changes in your business name, identification number, mailing address, business address, telephone number or owner/officer information and you have not previously notified us, complete Form DTF-95, Change of Business Information. If you don't have a form, call toll free (from New York State only) 1 800 462-8100. From areas outside New York State, call (518) 438-1073 to request one.

Change of Address

If your address has changed, enter your new address on the label and check the box next to the name and address block at the top of your corporation tax return. Do not check this box for any change of business information other than address. You must still attach the preprinted label with the old address to enable us to update your account.

When and Where to File

File Form CT-32 within 2½ months after the end of the tax year. If you are reporting for the 1995 calendar year, file your return on or before March 15, 1996. If you cannot meet the filing deadline, ask for an extension of time by filing Form CT-5.

Mail returns to:

NYS CORPORATION TAX PROCESSING UNIT
P O BOX 1909
ALBANY NY 12201-1909

International Banking Facility (IBF) Election

A corporation which has an International Banking Facility (IBF) located in New York State may, in lieu of the deduction for the adjusted eligible net income of such IBF, elect on an annual basis to reflect the result of its IBF operations in its entire net income allocation percentage and in its alternative entire net income allocation percentage. This election must be made within 45 days of the beginning of its tax year. This election must be in writing and addressed to:

NYS TAX DEPARTMENT
CORPORATION TAX — DESK AUDIT
W A HARRIMAN CAMPUS
ALBANY NY 12227

The election is required to be made on an annual basis and is binding for that tax year and cannot be changed by filing an amended return.

Allocation

A corporation which is doing business both within and outside of New York State is entitled to allocate its entire net income, alternative entire net income and taxable assets within and outside of New York State. A corporation not doing business outside of New York State must allocate its entire net income, alternative entire net income and taxable assets 100% to New York State. However, a corporation that has an IBF located in New York State may elect to reflect the results of its IBF operations in its entire net income allocation percentage and in its alternative entire net income allocation percentage.

Combined Return

If a combined return is permitted or required, each corporation included in the combined return must file Form CT-32. In addition, corporations filing Form CT-32-A are also required to file Form CT-32-B.

Copy of Federal Return

Attach a copy of federal Form 1120 or 1020F complete with attachments and any other returns or information requested in this return.

If changes are made to your federal return, you must file an amended New York State return (see Federal Changes and Amended Returns on page 9).

Metropolitan Transportation Business Tax (MTA Surcharge). Any corporation taxable under Article 32 that does business in the Metropolitan Commuter Transportation District (MCTD) must file Form CT-32-M and pay a metropolitan transportation business tax surcharge on business done in the Metropolitan Transportation Authority region (MTA Surcharge). The MCTD includes the counties of New York, Bronx, Kings, Queens, Richmond, Dutchess, Nassau, Orange, Putnam, Rockland, Suffolk and Westchester.

Answer the MTA surcharge question on page 1. Corporations not doing business in the MCTD must disclaim liability for the MTA surcharge by answering No and are not required to file Form CT-32-M.

Reporting Period

If you are a calendar year filer, check the box in the upper right corner on the front of the form.

If you are a fiscal year filer, complete the beginning and ending tax period boxes in the upper right corner on the front of the form.

Line A

After completing your return, enter the amount of your payment. Your payment should be the full amount shown on line 17.

Negative amounts, if any, should be shown in parentheses.

Schedule A

Line 1

Enter allocated taxable entire net income computed on line 63, Schedule B and multiply by the tax rate of 9%.

Line 2

Enter allocated taxable alternative entire net income computed on Schedule C, line 71 and multiply by the tax rate of 3%.

Line 3

Enter allocated taxable assets computed on line 75, Schedule D and multiply by the appropriate tax rate.

Line 5

Enter the amount from line 1, 2, 3 or 4, whichever is largest.

Line 6

Enter the amount claimed for the following tax credits:

- A Eligible Business Facility Tax Credit (sec. 1456(b)). Attach Form CT-45.
- B Economic Development Zone Capital Corporation Tax Credit (sec. 1456(d)). See Form DTF-602 for detailed instructions.
- C Tax Credit for Servicing Mortgages (sec. 1456(a)). If you claim this credit, you must submit a copy of the letter from the New York State Mortgage Agency approving the credit. This credit can reduce the tax to zero. Enter amount in the space provided on Form CT-32.
- D Economic Development Zone Wage Tax Credit (sec. 1456(e)). See Form DTF-601 for detailed instructions. Zone Equivalent Area Wage Tax Credit (sec. 1456(e)). See Form DTF-601.1 for detailed instructions.
- E Special Additional Mortgage Recording Tax Credit (sec. 1456(c)). See Form CT-43 for detailed instructions.

These credits, except for the credit for servicing mortgages, may not reduce your tax below the minimum tax of $250. The tax credits must be claimed in the same order as they are described.

Computation of State Tax Surcharge

Line 8

Enter the appropriate state tax surcharge rate from the chart below in the box on line 8 and compute your state tax surcharge on the worksheet below.

The state tax surcharge rates are:

	For Tax Years Ending		Maximum number
	After	and Before	of months
			surcharge imposed
12½%	6/30/94	7/1/95	12
7½%	6/30/95	7/1/96	12
2½%	6/30/96	7/1/97	12

Worksheet for State Tax Surcharge

- A State tax surcharge rate which applies to this return (see chart above). _____%
- B Maximum number of months for which the state tax surcharge rate on line A is imposed (see chart above). _____
- C Number of months for which the state tax surcharge rate on line A has been paid. _____
- D Number of months still subject to the state tax surcharge rate on line A (subtract line C from line B). _____
- If line D is zero, stop here and enter "0" on line 8 of the return.
- E Number of months covered by this return. _____
- If line E is less than or equal to line D, stop here and multiply the franchise tax on line 7 by the state tax surcharge rate on line A; enter this amount on line 8 of the return.
- If line E is more than line D complete lines F through I.
- F Proration percentage (divide line D by line E). _____%
- G Franchise tax from line 7 of the return. _____
- H Franchise tax subject to the state tax surcharge (multiply line G by line F). _____
- I State tax surcharge after proration (multiply line H by the state tax surcharge rate on line A). Enter this amount on line 8 of the return. _____

Line 10a

Use this line if you have filed Form CT-5, Request for Six-Month Extension to File, or Form CT-5.3, Request for Six-Month Extension to File. Enter amount shown on line 4 of Form CT-5 or on line 5 of Form CT-5.3.

Line 10b

If the total tax and the state tax surcharge on line 9 exceeds $1,000 and Form CT-5 was not filed, a mandatory first installment is required for the period following that covered by this return. Enter 25% of tax shown on line 9.

Line 12

Complete the payment reconciliation on page 7 and enter the total prepayments of estimated tax from Line 169. Include overpayment carryover from preceding period and any payment made with Form CT-5 or Form CT-5.3.

Line 14

Penalty for Underpaying Estimated Tax — Every corporation whose New York State franchise tax liability can reasonably be expected to exceed $1,000 must file a declaration of estimated tax, Form CT-400. A penalty will be imposed if a taxpayer fails to file a declaration of estimated tax or fails to pay all or any part of an installment payment of estimated tax, see Form CT-222, Underpayment of Estimated Tax by a Corporation.

Line 15

Late Payment — Interest — If you do not pay the franchise tax and state tax surcharge due on or before the due date (determined without regard to any extension of time), you must pay interest on the amount of the underpayment from the due date to the date paid. Exclude from the interest computation any amount shown on line 10a or 10b, first installment of estimated tax for next period. Interest will be compounded daily. If you need assistance call toll free (from New York State only) 1 800 CALL TAX (1 800 225-5829). From areas outside New York State call (518) 438-8581.

Line 16

Late Filing and Late Payment — Additional Charges — Additional charges for late filing and late payment are computed on the amount of tax and state tax surcharge less any payment made on or before the due date. Exclude from the penalty computation any amount shown on line 10a or 10b, first installment of estimated tax for next period.

- A If you do not file a return when due or if the request for extension is invalid, add to the tax 5% per month up to 25% (section 1085(a)(1)(A)).
- B If you do not file a return within 60 days of the due date, the addition to tax in item A above cannot be less than the smaller of $100 or 100% of the amount required to be shown as tax (section 1085(a)(1)(B)).
- C If you do not pay the tax shown on a return, add to the tax ½% per month up to 25% (section 1085(a)(2)).
- D The total of the additional charges in items A and C may not exceed 5% for any one month except as provided for in item B (section 1085(a)). If you think you are not liable for these additional charges, attach a statement to your return explaining the delay in filing, payment, or both (section 1085).

Line 23

Every corporation subject to tax under Article 32 of the Tax Law, including each corporation included in a combined return, must compute its issuer's allocation percentage on a separate basis (see instructions on page 9).

Compute the issuer's allocation percentage on page 8, lines 177 through 179. Failure to provide the information necessary to compute the issuer's allocation percentage may result in a $500 penalty (Tax Law, section 1085(o)).

Schedule BLine 24

Enter federal taxable income before net operating loss and special deductions.

If you are filing federal returns on a consolidated basis, enter federal taxable income before net operating loss and special deductions that would be reported as if a separate federal return had been filed.

When computing federal taxable income as if a separate federal return had been filed, a selling corporation(s) in an IRC section 338(h)(10) election excludes any gain or loss on the sale of stock of a target corporation if:

- The selling corporation and target corporation file a combined return for New York State on Form CT-32-A for a tax period up to and including the acquisition date of the target corporation; and

- The acquisition date of the target corporation occurred on or after November 20, 1991.

Attach a copy of consolidated federal return with spread sheets or work papers supporting the federal consolidated return.

Line 25

Corporations organized under the laws of a country other than the US enter dividends (including the IRC section 78 gross-up on dividends to the extent not already included in federal taxable income) and interest on any kind of stock, securities or indebtedness that are effectively connected with the conduct of a trade or business in the US pursuant to section 864 of the IRC and are excluded from federal taxable income.

Line 26

Corporations organized under the laws of a country other than the US enter any income effectively connected with the conduct of a trade or business in the US pursuant to section 864 of the IRC which is exempt from federal taxable income under any treaty obligation of the US and any income which would be treated as effectively connected with the conduct of a trade or business in the US pursuant to section 864 of the IRC were it not excluded from gross income pursuant to section 103(a) of the IRC.

Line 27

Corporations organized under the laws of the US or any of its states enter dividends (including the IRC section 78 gross-up on dividends to the extent not already included in federal taxable income) and interest on any kind of stock, securities or indebtedness that were excluded from federal taxable income. Include all interest on state and municipal bonds and obligations of the US and its instrumentalities.

Line 28

Enter any taxes on or measured by income or profit paid or accrued to the United States, any of its possessions or any foreign country, that were deducted in computing federal taxable income on line 24.

Line 29

Enter all New York State franchise taxes imposed under sections 183, 184 and 186 of Article 9, Articles 9-A and 32 that were deducted in computing federal taxable income.

Line 30

Enter total amounts of federal depreciation from lines 78 and 80.

Line 31

Enter amount of New York State gain or (loss) from line 82.

Line 32

Enter any amount claimed as a deduction in computing federal taxable income solely as a result of an election made pursuant to the provision of IRC section 168(f)(8) (safe harbor lease as it was in effect for agreements entered into prior to 1/1/84).

Line 33

Enter any amount that the taxpayer would have been required to include in the computation of its federal taxable income had it not made the election permitted pursuant to the provisions of IRC section 168(f)(8) (safe harbor lease as it was in effect for agreements entered into prior to 1/1/84).

Line 34

If special additional mortgage recording tax credit is being claimed, you must adjust entire net income by adding back the special additional mortgage recording tax claimed as a credit and used as a deduction in the computation of federal taxable income. The gain on the sale of real property on which the special additional mortgage recording tax credit was claimed must be increased when all or any portion of the credit was also used in the basis for computing the federal gain.

Line 36

Enter any amount allowed as a deduction for federal income tax pursuant to section 593(b)(1)(B) of the IRC.

Line 37

Enter the amount allowed as a deduction pursuant to section 166 of the IRC if subject to the provisions of section 585(c) of that code.

Line 38

- (1) If you compute a bad debt deduction pursuant to section 1453(h) of the Tax Law, enter 20% of the amount by which (a) the sum of the amount determined pursuant to section 1453(h)(2) plus the amount allowed as a deduction for federal income tax pursuant to section 593(b)(1)(A) exceeds (b) the amount which would have been allowable as a deduction had you maintained a bad debt reserve for all tax years on the basis of actual experience.
- (2) If you compute a bad debt deduction pursuant to section 1453(i) of the Tax Law, enter 20% of the excess of the amount determined pursuant to section 1453(i) over the amount that would have been allowable as a deduction had you maintained a bad debt reserve for all tax years on the basis of actual experience.

Line 39

If you make an adjustment to federal taxable income on line 53, you must add any income the IBF received from foreign branches that is included on line 90 of Schedule G and that is not included in federal taxable income.

Line 41

Enter expenses not deducted on your federal return that are applicable to income from dividends or interest that is exempt from federal tax, shown on lines 25, 26 and 27.

Line 42

Enter amount of New York State allowable depreciation from line 81.

Line 43

Enter amount of federal gain or (loss) from lines 83 and 85.

Line 44

Enter any income or gain from installment sales included in federal taxable income that was previously includable in computing tax under Articles 9-B or 9-C.

Line 45

Enter the amount of IRC section 78 dividends included on lines 24 through 27.

Line 46

Enter any amount included in federal taxable income solely as a result of an election made pursuant to the provisions of IRC section 168(f)(8) (safe harbor lease as it was in effect for agreements entered into prior to 1/1/84).

Line 47

Enter any amount you could have excluded from federal taxable income had you not made the election pursuant to IRC section 168(f)(8) (safe harbor lease as it was in effect for agreements entered into prior to 1/1/84). For additional information on safe harbor leases see TSB-M-82(15)C Memorandum.

Line 48

A deduction may be made for the amount of wages which were disallowed in the computation of your federal taxable income for the purpose of the Jobs Credit. Attach a copy of federal Form 5884.

Line 49

Enter any amount of money or other property (whether or not evidenced by a note or other instrument) received from the following: the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation under section 13(c) of the Federal Deposit Insurance Act, as amended; the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation under section 406(f)(1), (2), (3) or (4) of the Federal National Housing Act, as amended; or the Resolution Trust Corporation (RTC) under section 1823(c)(1), (2) or (3) of Title 12 of the United States Code.

Line 50

Attach a list showing the names of the subsidiaries and the amount of interest income received from each (see TSB-M-87(11)C).

A subsidiary is a corporation which is controlled by the taxpayer, because the taxpayer owns more than 50% of the total number of the shares of the corporation's voting capital stock.

Subsidiary capital is the taxpayer's total investment in shares of stock in its subsidiaries, and the amount of indebtedness owed to the taxpayer by its subsidiaries (whether or not evidenced by written instruments) on which interest is not claimed and deducted by the subsidiary against any tax imposed by Articles 9-A, 32 or 33 of the Tax Law.

Subsidiary capital does not include accounts receivable acquired in the ordinary course of trade or business either for services rendered or for sales of property held primarily for sale to customers.

Line 51a

Attach a list showing the names of each subsidiary and the amount of dividend income received from each subsidiary to the extent included in federal taxable income on line 24 and/or line 26 (see TSB-M-87(11)C). Deduct from subsidiary dividend income any section 78 dividends deducted on line 45 which are attributable to dividends from subsidiary capital.

Line 51b

Attach a list showing the names of each subsidiary and the amount of gains or losses received from each subsidiary to the extent included in federal taxable income on line 24 (see TSB-M-87(11)C). Include any gain or loss from the sale of a subsidiary corporation, as a result of an IRC section 338 election, to the extent the gain or loss is included in federal taxable income on line 24. Subsidiary gains must be offset by subsidiary losses. If subsidiary gains exceed subsidiary losses, the net gain is multiplied by 60%. If subsidiary losses exceed subsidiary gains, enter "0" on line 51b.

Combined Filers — When computing subsidiary net gain or loss, a separate net gain or loss computation is required for subsidiaries included in the combined group on Form CT-32-A, and a separate net gain or loss computation is required for subsidiaries not included in the combined group. Additionally, the parent corporation which is included in the combined group on Form CT-32-A must multiply the subsidiary net gain for subsidiaries included in the combined group by 40% and enter this amount as an intercorporate elimination on Form CT-32-A, Schedule K, line 61.

Line 52

Attach a list showing the name and amount of interest income received from each obligation of New York State, each obligation of political subdivisions of New York State and each obligation of the United States. The term obligation refers to obligations incurred in the exercise of the borrowing power of New York State or any of its political subdivisions or of the United States. The term obligation does not include obligations held for resale in connection with regular trading activities or obligations which guarantee the debt of a third party. The following do not qualify under this provision: guaranteed student loans, industrial development bonds issued pursuant to Article 18-A of the New York State General Municipal Law, FNMA mortgage-backed securities and GNMA mortgage-backed securities. This is not, however, a comprehensive list.

Additional information can be found in TSB-M-86(7.1)C.

Line 53

Enter amount from line 109 of Schedule G if you do not elect to use the IBF formula allocation method. Note: See lines 39 and 58 for adjustments to federal taxable income which are attributable to transactions between the taxpayer's foreign branches and its IBF.

Line 54

Enter any amount which is included in federal taxable income pursuant to section 585(c) of the IRC.

Line 55

Enter any amount which is included in federal taxable income as a result of a recovery of a loan by a taxpayer subject to the provisions of section 585(c) of the IRC.

Line 56

(1) A taxpayer which computes all or a portion of its bad debt deduction for federal income tax purposes pursuant to section 593(b)(1)(B) of the IRC using the percentage of taxable income method set forth in section 593(b)(2) of such code, shall be allowed as a deduction in computing entire net income an amount determined as follows:

- (A) (i) Ascertain the amount deducted for federal income tax purposes pursuant to section 593(b)(1)(B) of the IRC and add to it the amount, if any, deducted for federal income tax purposes pursuant to section 593(b)(1)(A).
- (ii) Multiply the amount determined in (1)(A)(i) by five.
- (iii) Subtract from the amount determined in (1)(A)(ii) the amount deducted for federal income tax purposes pursuant to section 593(b)(1)(A).

(B) The amount determined under (1)(A) shall not exceed the amount necessary to increase the balance at the close of the tax year of the New York reserve for losses on qualifying real property loans to six percent of such loans outstanding at such time.

(C) The amount determined under (1)(A) shall in no case be greater than the larger of

- (i) the amount determined under section 593(b)(3) of the IRC for the tax year, or
- (ii) the amount that when added to the amount determined under section 593(b)(1)(A) of the IRC for the tax year, equals the amount by which twelve percent of the total deposits or withdrawable accounts of depositors of the taxpayer at the close of such year exceeds the sum of its surplus, undivided profits, and reserves at the beginning of such year (taking into account any portion thereof attributable to the period before the first tax year beginning after December 31, 1951).

(2) (A) Each taxpayer described in (1) shall establish and maintain a New York reserve for losses on qualifying real property loans. Such reserve shall be maintained for all subsequent tax years. The balance of the New York reserve for losses on qualifying real property loans at the beginning of the first day of the first tax year the taxpayer becomes subject to this subsection shall be the same as the balance at the beginning of such day of the reserve for losses on qualifying real property loans maintained for federal income tax purposes.

(B) All debts which are charged or credited to the reserve for losses on qualifying real property loans maintained for federal income tax purposes must be charged or credited to the New York reserve for losses on qualifying real property loans. No other debts may be charged or credited to such New York reserve.

(C) The New York reserve for losses on qualifying real property loans shall be increased by the amount determined under (1) or the amount determined under section 593(b)(1)(B) of the IRC if such amount was determined using the experience method set forth in section 593(b)(3) of the IRC.

(3) (A) There shall be allowed as a deduction in computing entire net income the amount, if any, included in federal taxable income pursuant to section 593(e)(2) of the IRC.

(B) Any distribution of property (as defined in section 317(a) of the IRC) by a domestic building and loan association or an institution that is treated as a mutual savings bank under section 591(b) of the IRC to a shareholder with respect to its stock, if such distribution is not allowable as a deduction under section 591 of the IRC, shall be treated as made

- (i) first out of its New York earnings and profits accumulated in tax years beginning after December 31, 1951, to the extent thereof,

- (ii) then out of the New York reserve for losses on qualifying real property loans, to the extent additions to such reserve exceed the additions which would have been allowed under section 593(b)(3) of the IRC,
- (iii) then out of the supplemental reserve for losses on loans maintained for federal income tax purposes, to the extent thereof,
- (iv) then out of such other accounts as may be proper.

(3)(B) Shall apply in the case of any distribution in redemption of stock or in partial or complete liquidation of the association or an institution that is treated as a mutual savings bank under section 591(b) of the IRC, except that any such distribution shall be treated as made first out of the amount referred to in (3)(B)(ii), second out of the amount referred to in (3)(B)(iii), third out of the amount referred to in (3)(B)(i) and then out of such other accounts as may be proper. (3)(B) shall not apply to any transaction to which section 381 of the IRC (relating to carryovers and certain corporate acquisitions) applies, or to any distribution to the federal savings and loan insurance corporation or the federal deposit insurance corporation in redemption of an interest in an association or institution, if such interest was originally received by the federal savings and loan insurance corporation or the federal deposit insurance corporation in exchange for financial assistance pursuant to section 406(f) of the Federal National Housing Act or pursuant to subsection (c) of section thirteen of the Federal Deposit Insurance Act.

- (C) If any distribution is treated under (3)(B) as having been made out of the reserves described in (3)(B)(ii) and (3)(B)(iii), the amount charged against such reserve shall be the amount that when reduced by the amount of tax imposed under the IRC and attributable to the inclusion of such amount in gross income, is equal to the amount of such distribution; and the amount so charged against such reserve shall be included in the entire net income of the taxpayer.
 - (D) (i) For purposes of (3)(B)(ii), additions to the New York reserve for losses on qualifying real property loans for the tax year in which the distribution occurs shall be taken into account.
 - (ii) For purposes of computing the amount of a reasonable addition to the New York reserve for losses on qualifying real property loans for any tax year, the amount charged during any year to such reserve pursuant to the provisions of (3)(C) shall not be taken into account.
- (4) A taxpayer that maintains a New York reserve for losses on qualifying real property loans and that ceases to be subject to the provisions of section 593 of the IRC must include in its entire net income, for the last tax year such section applied, the excess of its New York reserve for losses on qualifying real property loans over its reserve for losses on qualifying real property loans maintained for federal income tax purposes.

Line 57

- (1) A taxpayer subject to the provisions of section 585(c) of the IRC may, in computing entire net income, deduct an amount equal to or less than the amount determined pursuant to (1)(A) or (1)(B), whichever is greater. Provided, however, in no event shall the deduction be less than the amount determined pursuant to such (1)(A).
- (A) The amount determined pursuant to (1)(A) shall be the amount necessary to increase the balance of its New York reserve for losses on loans (at the close of the tax year) to the amount which bears the same ratio to loans outstanding at the close of the tax year as (i) the total bad debts sustained during the tax year and the five preceding tax years (or, with the approval of the Commissioner of Taxation and Finance, a shorter period), adjusted for recoveries of bad debts during such period, bears to (ii) the sum of the loans outstanding at the close of such six or fewer tax years.
 - (B) (i) The amount determined pursuant to (1)(B) shall be the amount necessary to increase the balance of its New York reserve for losses on loans (at the close of the tax year) to the lower of -
 - (I) the balance of the reserve at the close of the base year, or
 - (II) if the amount of loans outstanding at the close of the tax year is less than the amount of loans outstanding at the close of the base year, the amount that bears the same ratio to loans outstanding at the close of the tax year as the balance of the reserve at the close of the base year bears to the amount of loans outstanding at the close of the base year.
 - (ii) For purposes of (1), the base year shall be
 - (I) (for tax years beginning in 1987) the last tax year before the most recent adoption of the experience method for federal income tax purposes or for purposes of Article 32, whichever is earlier, and
 - (II) (for tax years beginning after 1987) the last tax year beginning before 1988.
- (2) Each taxpayer described in (1) shall establish and maintain a New York reserve for losses on loans. Such reserve shall be maintained for all subsequent tax years. The balance of the New York reserve for losses on loans at the beginning of the first day of the first tax year the taxpayer becomes subject to section 1453(i) shall be the same as the balance at the beginning of such day of the reserve for losses on loans maintained for federal income tax purposes. The New York reserve for losses on loans shall be reduced by an amount equal to the deduction allowed, but not more than the amount allowable, for worthless debts for federal income tax purposes pursuant to section 166 of the IRC plus the amount, if any, charged against its reserve for losses on loans pursuant to section 585(c)(4) of the IRC.

- (3) The determination and treatment of the New York reserve balance, including any additions thereto, subtractions therefrom, or recapture thereof, for
- (A) any banking corporation which was subject to tax for federal income tax purposes but not subject to tax under Article 32 for prior tax years,
 - (B) any taxpayer which ceases to be subject to tax under Article 32, or
 - (C) any other unusual circumstances shall be determined by the Commissioner of Taxation and Finance. Provided, however, any banking corporation which was subject to tax for federal income tax purposes but not subject to tax under Article 32 for prior tax years shall have as its opening New York reserve for losses on loans the amount determined by applying the provisions of (1)(A) to loans outstanding at the close of its last tax year for federal income tax purposes ending prior to the first tax year for which the taxpayer is subject to tax under Article 32 and provided, further, that the provisions of (1)(B) shall not apply.

Line 58

If you make an adjustment to federal taxable income on line 53, you must subtract any expenses of the IBF that were paid to foreign branches of the taxpayer that are included on line 93 of Schedule G that are not included in federal taxable income.

Line 62

If you claim a deduction for optional depreciation, enter the amounts from lines 79 and 84.

Schedule CLine 64

Entire net income must be same as that reported on line 60, Schedule B. Whatever election you make concerning the IBF modification to entire net income applies to the computation of alternative entire net income.

Line 65

Enter the amount subtracted on line 50 of Schedule B.

Line 66

Enter the amount of dividend income shown on line 51a and the amount of net gain from subsidiary capital shown on line 51b.

Line 67

Enter the amount subtracted on line 52, Schedule B.

Line 70

If you claim a deduction for optional depreciation, enter the amounts from lines 79 and 84.

Schedule DComputation of Taxable assets

A taxpayer is not subject to the tax on taxable assets for that portion of the tax year in which it had outstanding net worth certificates issued to the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation (FSLIC) in accordance with section 406(f)(5) of the Federal National Housing Act, as amended, or outstanding net worth certificates issued to the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) in accordance with section 13(i) of the Federal Deposit Insurance Act, as amended.

Line 72

Compute the average value of total assets that includes money or other property received from the FSLIC, FDIC or RTC and interbank placements. Average value of total assets is generally computed on a quarterly basis. However, you may use a more frequent basis, such as monthly, weekly or daily. Total assets are those assets that are properly reflected on a balance sheet, the income or expenses of which are properly reflected (or would have been properly reflected if not fully depreciated or expensed or depreciated or expensed to a nominal amount) in the computation of the taxpayer's alternative entire net income for the tax year or in the computation of the eligible net income of the taxpayer's IBF for the tax year. Tangible real and personal property, such as buildings, land, machinery and equipment is valued at cost. Intangible property such as loans, investments, coin and currency is valued at book value.

Line 73

Include any amount of money or other property (whether or not evidenced by a note or other instrument) received from or attributable to amounts received from the following: the FDIC pursuant to section 13(c) of the Federal Deposit Insurance Act, as amended; the FSLIC pursuant to section 406(f)(1) (2) (3) or (4) of the Federal National Housing Act, as amended; or the Resolution Trust Corporation (RTC) under section 1823(c)(1), (2) or (3) of Title 12 of the United States code.

Line 76

The term net worth ratio means the percentage of net worth to assets on the last day of the tax year. The term net worth means the sum of preferred stock, common stock, surplus, capital reserves, undivided profits, mutual capital certificates, reserve for contingencies, reserve for loan losses and reserve for security losses minus assets classified loss. The term assets means the sum of mortgage loans, nonmortgage loans, repossessed assets, real estate held for development or investment or resale, cash, deposits, investment securities, fixed assets and other assets (such as financial futures, goodwill and other intangible assets) minus assets classified loss. In no event shall assets be reduced by reserves for losses.

Line 77

The percentage of mortgages included in total assets is determined by dividing the average of the four quarterly balances of mortgages ending within the tax year by the average of the four quarterly balances of all assets ending within the tax year. Such quarterly balances shall be computed in the same manner as the Report of Condition required for FDIC or FSLIC purposes whether or not such report is required. The term mortgages means loans secured by real property within or outside New York State, participations in and securities collateralized by pools of residential mortgages, whether or not issued or guaranteed by a United States government agency, and loans secured by stock in a cooperative housing corporation.

Schedule E

Part I

At the election of the taxpayer, up to double the amount of federal depreciation on qualified tangible property (except personal property leased to others) may be deducted in lieu of the amount of normal depreciation. The original use of such property must commence with the taxpayer and the property must be (1) depreciable tangible property as defined by section 167 of the IRC, (2) constructed or acquired after December 31, 1963 and on or before December 31, 1967 and (3) have a situs in New York. The total deduction of all years, including years covered by Articles 9-B or 9-C with respect to any unit of property may not exceed the cost of such property. Any unused optional depreciation may be carried forward to succeeding years. The amount of carryover is determined by limiting allocated entire net income (Schedule B, line 61) to zero.

Part II

Include property on which the method of depreciation under Article 9-B or 9-C was different than that used for federal purposes.

Adjustments to Entire Net Income resulting from Accelerated Cost Recovery System (ACRS) or Modified Accelerated Cost Recovery System (MACRS) Property

Include in Part II column E the following items:

- For property placed in service in tax years beginning before 1/1/85 the ACRS deduction on all such property.
- For property placed in service outside New York State in tax years beginning on or after 1/1/85 and before 1/1/94, the ACRS or MACRS depreciation deduction on such property.
- For tax years ending after 6/18/84 DO NOT include the ACRS deduction on property subject to the provisions of section 280F of the IRC, whether such property is located within or without New York State.
- Any adjustments on the disposition of ACRS or MACRS property where New York State depreciation exceeded federal depreciation.

Include in Part II column G the following items:

- For property placed in service in tax years beginning before 1/1/85, the allowable New York State depreciation deduction computed under section 167 of the IRC.
- For property placed in service outside New York State in tax years beginning on or after 1/1/85 and before 1/1/94 the allowable New York State depreciation deduction computed under section 167 of the IRC.
- For tax years ending after 6/18/84 DO NOT include the ACRS deduction on property subject to the provisions of section 280F of the IRC, whether such property is located within or outside New York State.
- Any adjustments on the disposition of ACRS or MACRS property where federal depreciation exceeded New York State depreciation.

Complete and attach Form CT-399, Depreciation Adjustment Schedule.

Schedule F

In computing gain, enter the higher of cost or fair market price or value at applicable date. In computing loss, enter the lower of cost or fair market price or value at applicable date.

Upon sale or disposition, the net gain or loss thereon should be computed by adjusting the federal basis of such property to reflect the total deductions allowed for all years, including years covered by Articles 9-B or 9-C.

Schedule G

International Banking Facility (IBF)

A corporation with an IBF located in New York State may exclude the adjusted eligible net income or add the adjusted eligible net loss of such IBF in computing its entire net income and alternative entire net income, OR the corporation may elect, on an annual basis, to reflect the results of its IBF operations in its entire net income allocation percentage and in its alternative entire net income allocation percentage. For timely notification concerning the IBF election, see page 1 of these instructions. Indicate whether the election has been made by checking the appropriate box on Schedule G.

A corporation with an IBF located in New York State which has not elected to reflect the results of its IBF operations in its entire net income allocation percentage or alternative entire net income allocation percentage deducts from entire net income (at Schedule B, line 53) the adjusted eligible net income of such IBF or adds to entire net income (at Schedule B, line 53) the adjusted eligible net loss of such IBF. A corporation using this method is required to complete all of Schedule G to determine the adjusted eligible net income or loss of its IBF.

A corporation with an IBF located in New York State which has elected to reflect the results of its IBF operations in its entire net income allocation percentage and in its alternative entire net income percentage must complete lines 86 through 90 of Schedule G.

Whatever election the corporation makes concerning the IBF modification to entire net income applies to the computation of alternative entire net income. The election is binding on the taxpayer for that tax year and cannot be changed by filing an amended return.

Schedule H

Allocation percentage

A corporation which is doing business both within and outside of New York State is entitled to allocate its entire net income, alternative entire net income and taxable assets within and outside New York State. A corporation which is not doing business outside New York State must allocate its entire net income, alternative entire net income and taxable assets 100% to New York State. However, a corporation that has an IBF located in New York State may elect, on an annual basis, to reflect the results of its IBF operations in its entire net income allocation percentage and in its alternative entire net income allocation percentage. For timely notification concerning the IBF election, see page 1 of these instructions.

A corporation that is not doing business outside of New York State and that has made the IBF election must allocate taxable assets 100% to New York State.

In determining whether a corporation is doing business outside New York State, consideration is given to the same factors used to determine if business is being carried on within New York State. See Definition of Doing Business Within New York State on page 1 of these instructions. A corporation that claims to be doing business outside New York State must attach a statement describing the activities of the corporation within and outside New York State.

Each allocation percentage is determined by a formula consisting of a payroll factor, receipts factor and deposits factor.

The receipts factor includes only receipts that are included in the computation of alternative entire net income for the tax year. The deposits and payroll factors shall include only deposits and payroll, the expenses of which are included in the computation of alternative entire net income for the tax year. Each factor is computed on a cash or accrual basis according to the method of accounting used by the taxpayer for the tax year in computing its alternative entire net income.

Payroll Factor

The percentage of a corporation's payroll allocated to New York State is determined by dividing 80% (100% when computing the alternative entire net income allocation percentage) of the wages, salaries and other personal service compensation of the corporation's employees, except general executive officers, within New York State during the period the corporation is entitled to allocate by the total amount of wages, salaries and other personal service compensation of the corporation's employees, except general executive officers, both within and outside of New York State during the period the corporation is entitled to allocate.

The term employees includes every individual, except general executive officers, where the relationship existing between the corporation and the individual is that of employer and employee. The phrase "employees within New York State" includes all employees regularly connected with or working out of an office of the corporation within New York State, irrespective of where the services of such employees were performed.

The phrase general executive officer includes every officer of the corporation charged with and performing general executive duties of the corporation who is elected by the shareholders, elected or appointed by the board of directors, or if initially appointed by another officer, such appointment must be ratified by the board of directors. A general executive officer must have company-wide authority with respect to assigned functions or duties or must be responsible for an entire division of the company.

Receipts Factor

The percentage of the taxpayer's receipts allocated to New York State is determined by dividing 100% of the taxpayer's receipts from loans (including the taxpayer's portion of a participation in a loan) and financing leases and all other business receipts earned within New York State during the period the taxpayer is entitled to allocate by the total amount of the taxpayer's receipts from loans (including the taxpayer's portion of a participation in a loan) and financing leases and all other business receipts earned within and outside of New York State during the period the taxpayer is entitled to allocate.

Interest Income From Loans and Financing Leases

Interest income from loans and financing leases is allocated to New York State if such income is attributable to a loan or financing lease which is located in New York State. Interest income from a loan or financing lease does not include repayments of principal. A loan or financing lease is located where the greater portion of income producing activity relating to the loan or financing lease occurred.

Except for a taxpayer which is a production credit association or a corporation described on page 1 of these instructions under Who Must File, Item D, a loan or financing lease attributed by the taxpayer to a branch outside New York State shall be presumed to be properly so attributed provided that such presumption may be rebutted if the Commissioner of Taxation and Finance demonstrates that the greater portion of income producing activity related to the loan or financing lease did not occur at such branch. In the case of a loan or financing lease that is recorded on the books of a place outside New York State that is not a branch, it shall be presumed that the greater portion of income producing activity related to such loan or financing lease occurred within New York State if the taxpayer had a branch within New York State at the time the loan or financing lease was made. The taxpayer may rebut such presumption by demonstrating that the greater portion of income producing activity related to the loan or financing lease did not occur within New York State.

In the case of a taxpayer that is a production credit association or a corporation described on page 1 of these instructions under Who Must File, Item D, a loan or financing lease attributed by the taxpayer to a bonafide office outside New York State shall be presumed to be properly so attributed provided that such presumption may be rebutted if the Commissioner of Taxation and Finance demonstrates that the greater portion of income producing activity related to the loan or financing lease did not occur outside New York State.

Income producing activity includes such activities as: solicitation, investigation, negotiation, approval and administration of the loan or financing lease. A loan or financing lease is made when such loan or financing lease is approved. The term loan means any loan, whether the transaction is represented by a promissory note, security, acknowledgement of advance, due bill or any other form of credit transaction, if the related asset is properly recorded in the financial accounts of the taxpayer. Loans include the taxpayer's portion of a participation in a loan. The term financing lease means a lease where the taxpayer is not treated as the owner of the property for purposes of computing alternative entire net income.

Other Income From Loans and Financing Leases

Other income from loans and financing leases includes, but is not limited to, arrangement fees, commitment fees and management fees but does not include repayments of principal. Other income from loans and financing leases is allocated to New York State when the greater portion of income producing activity relating to such income is within New York State.

Lease Transactions and Rents

Receipts from real property and tangible personal property leased or rented from the corporation are allocated to New York State if such property is located in New York State. Receipts from rentals include all amounts received by the corporation for the use of or occupation of property, whether or not such property is owned by the taxpayer. Gross receipts received from real property and tangible personal property which is subleased must be included in the receipts factor.

Interest From Bank, Credit, Travel, Entertainment and Other Card Receivables

Interest, fees in the nature of interest and penalties in the nature of interest from bank, credit, travel, entertainment and other card receivables are allocated to New York State if the card holder's domicile is in New York State. It is presumed that the domicile of a card holder is its billing address.

Service Charges and Fees From Bank, Credit, Travel, Entertainment and Other Cards

Service charges and fees from bank, credit, travel, entertainment and other cards are allocated to New York State if the card is serviced within New York State. A card is serviced at the place where the records pertaining to such account are kept and managed.

Receipts From Merchant Discounts

Receipts from merchant discounts are allocated to New York State if the merchant is located within New York State. If a merchant has locations both within and outside of New York State, only receipts from merchant discounts attributable to sales made from locations within New York State are allocated to New York State. It shall be presumed that the location of the merchant is the address of the merchant shown on the invoice submitted by the merchant.

Income From Trading Activities and Investment Activities

The portion of total net gains and other income from trading activities (including but not limited to foreign exchange, options and financial futures) and investment activities that is attributed within New York State shall be ascertained by multiplying such total net gains and other income by a fraction the numerator of which is the average value of trading assets and investment assets attributable to New York State and the denominator of which is the average value of all trading and investment assets. A trading asset or investment asset is attributable to New York State if the greater portion of income producing activity related to the trading asset or investment asset occurred within New York State. Trading activities include, but are not limited to, foreign exchange transactions, the purchase and sale of options and financial futures, and in appropriate cases interbank fund transfers.

Interbank fund transfers include, but are not limited to, trading in negotiable certificates of deposit, currency swaps, interest rate swaps, eurodollar transfers (purchases or sales), federal funds (sales, transfers and purchases) and repurchase agreements representing transfer of funds.

Fees or Charges From Letters of Credit, Traveler's Checks and Money Orders

Fees or charges from the issuance of letters of credit, traveler's checks and money orders are allocated to New York State if such letters of credit, traveler's checks or money orders are issued within New York State.

Performance of Services

Receipts for services performed by the taxpayer's employees regularly connected with or working out of a New York State office of the taxpayer are allocated to New York State if such services are performed within New York State.

When allocating receipts for services performed, it is immaterial where such receipts are payable or where they are actually received.

Where services are performed both within and outside of New York State, the portion of the receipts attributable to services performed within New York State is determined on the basis of the relative value of, or amount of time spent in performance of, such services within New York

State, or by some other reasonable method. Full details must be submitted with the taxpayer's return.

Royalties

Receipts of royalties from the use of patents, copyrights and trademarks are allocated to New York State if the taxpayer's actual seat of management or control is located in New York State. Royalties include all amounts received by the taxpayer for the use of patents, copyrights or trademarks, whether or not such patents, copyrights or trademarks were issued to the taxpayer.

All Other Business Receipts

Income from securities used to maintain reserves against deposits to meet federal and state reserve requirements shall be allocated to New York State based upon the ratio that total deposits in New York State bears to total deposits everywhere.

All other business receipts earned by the taxpayer in New York State are allocated to New York State.

A receipt from the sale of a capital asset is not a business receipt and is not included in the receipts factor. For example, the receipt from the sale of a capital asset as scrap or at a gain is not included in the receipts factor.

Deposits Factor

The percentage of the taxpayer's deposits allocated to New York State is determined by dividing the average value of deposits maintained at branches of the taxpayer within New York State during the period the taxpayer is entitled to allocate by the average value of all deposits maintained at branches of the taxpayer both within and outside of New York State during the period the taxpayer is entitled to allocate.

The term deposit means:

- the unpaid balance of money or its equivalent received or held by a bank in the usual course of business and for which it has given or is obligated to give credit, either conditionally or unconditionally, to a commercial, checking, savings, time, or thrift account, or that is evidenced by its certificate of deposit, thrift certificate, investment certificate, certificate of indebtedness, or other similar name, or a check or draft drawn against a deposit account and certified by the bank, or a letter of credit or a traveler's check on which the bank is primarily liable; provided, that, without limiting the generality of the term money or its equivalent, any such account or instrument must be regarded as evidencing the receipt of the equivalent of money when credited or issued in exchange for checks or drafts or for a promissory note upon which the person obtaining any such credit or instrument is primarily or secondarily liable, or for a charge against a deposit account, or in settlement of checks, drafts, or other instruments forwarded to such bank for collection;
- trust funds received or held by such bank, whether held in the trust department or held or deposited in any other department of such bank;
- money received or held by a bank, or the credit given for money or its equivalent received or held by a bank, in the usual course of business for a special or specific purpose, regardless of the legal relationship thereby established, including without being limited to escrow funds, funds held as security for an obligation due to the bank or others (including funds held as dealers' reserves) or for securities loaned by the bank, funds deposited by a debtor to meet maturing obligations, funds deposited as advanced payment on subscriptions to United States Government securities, funds held for distribution or purchase of securities, funds held to meet its acceptances or letters of credit, and withheld taxes; provided, that there shall not be included funds that are received by the bank for immediate application to the reduction of an indebtedness to the receiving bank, or under condition that the receipt thereof immediately reduces or extinguishes such an indebtedness;

- outstanding drafts (including advice or authorization to charge a bank's balance in another bank), cashier's checks, money orders, or other officer's checks issued in the usual course of business for any purpose, but not including those issued in payment for services, dividends, or purchases or other costs or expenses of the bank itself.

A deposit is maintained at the branch of the taxpayer at which it is properly booked.

A deposit, the value of which at all times during the tax year was less than $100,000, that is booked by a taxpayer at a branch outside of New York State is presumed to be properly booked, provided that such presumption may be rebutted if the Commissioner of Taxation and Finance demonstrates that the greater portion of contact relating to the deposit did not occur at such branch.

A deposit, the value of which at any time during the tax year was $100,000 or more, is considered to be properly booked at the branch with which it has a greater portion of contact.

In determining whether a deposit has a greater portion of contact with a particular branch, consideration is given to such activities as:

- whether the deposit account was opened at or transferred to that branch by or at the direction of the depositor or by a broker of deposits, regardless of where subsequent deposits or withdrawals may be made;
- whether employees regularly connected with that branch are primarily responsible for servicing the depositor's general banking and other financial needs;
- whether the deposit was solicited by an employee regularly connected with that branch, regardless of where such deposit was actually solicited;
- whether the terms governing the deposit were negotiated by employees regularly connected with that branch, regardless of where the negotiations were actually conducted; and
- whether essential records relating to the deposit are kept at that branch and whether the deposit is serviced at that branch.

The value of deposits maintained at branches of the taxpayer is the total of the amounts credited to depositors, including the amount of any interest so credited. The average value of deposits is to be computed on a daily basis. However, if the taxpayer's usual accounting practices do not permit the computation of average value on a daily basis, a computation on a weekly basis will be permitted. The Commissioner of Taxation and Finance will not permit the computation of average value of deposits on a basis less frequent than weekly, unless the taxpayer demonstrates that requiring it to use a weekly computation would produce an undue hardship.

Allocation Percentage For Taxpayers with an IBF Located in New York State

A corporation with an IBF located in New York State which has NOT elected to use the IBF formula allocation method must, when computing its entire net income allocation percentage and its alternative entire net income allocation percentage:

- Exclude from the numerator and denominator of the payroll factor, the wages, salaries, and other personal service compensation of employees the expenses of which are attributable to the production of eligible gross income of the IBF.
- Exclude from the numerator and denominator of the receipts factor those receipts that are attributable to the production of eligible gross income of the IBF.
- Exclude from the numerator and denominator of the deposits factor, deposits the expenses of which are attributable to the production of eligible gross income of the IBF.

A corporation that has an IBF located in New York State and that has elected to use the IBF formula allocation method, must, when computing its entire net income allocation percentage and its alternative entire net income allocation percentage:

- Exclude from the numerator of the payroll factor, the wages, salaries and other personal service compensation of employees the expenses of which are attributable to the production of eligible gross income of the IBF. Include in the denominator of the payroll factor, the wages, salaries and other personal service compensation of employees, except general executive officers, the expenses of which are attributable to the production of eligible gross income of the IBF.
- Exclude from the numerator but include in the denominator of the receipts factor those receipts that are attributable to the production of eligible gross income of the IBF.
- Exclude from the numerator but include in the denominator of the deposits factor, deposits the expenses of which are attributable to the production of eligible gross income to the IBF.

Every corporation that as an IBF located in New York State (whether or not it has made the IBF election) must compute its taxable assets allocation percentage as follows:

- Include in the numerator and denominator of the payroll factor wages, salaries and personal service compensation of employees, except general executive officers, the expenses of which are attributable to the production of eligible gross income of the IBF.
- Include in the numerator and denominator of the receipts factor receipts that are attributable to the production of eligible gross income of the IBF.
- Include in the numerator and denominator of the deposits factor deposits and expenses that are attributable to the production of eligible gross income of the IBF.

For the purpose of computing the allocation percentages, eligible gross income does not include transactions between the taxpayer's foreign branches and its IBF.

Computation of the Issuer's Allocation Percentage

The issuer's allocation percentage for a CT-32 filer is computed using one of three methods. Determine which one of the three methods applies and compute the issuer's allocation percentage on page 8. Failure to provide the information necessary to compute the issuer's allocation percentage will result in a $500 penalty. See additional information on line 23 instructions and TSB-M-86(10)C.

Method I. A banking corporation (excluding corporations described in Who Must File, Item D) organized under the laws of the United States, New York State or any other state enters as its issuer's allocation percentage the alternative entire net income allocation percentage on form CT-32, Schedule H, Part II, line 139.

Method II. A banking corporation (excluding corporations described in Who Must File, Item D) organized under the laws of a country other than the United States enters as its issuer's allocation percentage the percentage determined by dividing gross income within New York State by worldwide gross income.

- Enter as gross income within New York State total receipts as shown in Schedule H, Part I, column A, line 124.
- Enter as worldwide gross income total receipts as shown in Schedule H, Part I, column B, line 124, plus all receipts as defined on lines 113 through 123, from sources outside the United States which were not taken into account in computing federal taxable income.
- Every corporation with an IBF located in New York State (whether or not it has made the IBF election) must include in the numerator and denominator of the issuer's allocation percentage receipts as defined on lines 113 through 123 which are attributable to the production of eligible gross income of the IBF.
- When the receipts shown in the computation of the issuer's allocation percentage are different than the receipts shown in Schedule H, Part I, column A or B, line 124, attach an explanation.

Method III. Every corporation owned by a bank or a bank holding company as defined by Who Must File item D and every bank holding company that is included in a combined return enter as its issuer's allocation percentage the percentage determined by dividing business and subsidiary capital allocated to New York State by total worldwide capital.

Computation of Subsidiary Capital Allocated to New York State

Column A

Enter the full name and federal employer identification number of each subsidiary. Subsidiary capital is defined by line 50 of the instructions or Section 1450(e) of the Tax Law.

Column C

Enter the average value of each subsidiary. The average value is computed on a quarterly, monthly, weekly or daily basis. Use the same basis of averaging subsidiary capital used to average total assets in Schedule D, line 72.

Column D

Enter the average value of current liabilities attributable to each subsidiary. The average value is computed on a quarterly, monthly, weekly or daily basis. Use the same basis of averaging current liabilities used to average subsidiary capital in column C.

Column F

Enter the issuer's allocation percentage for each subsidiary. The issuer's allocation percentage is obtained from the New York State corporation franchise tax return filed by the subsidiary corporation for the preceding year.

Issuer's allocation percentages may be obtained in Tax Service Publications or by written request (in duplicate) to:

Computation of Business Capital Allocated to New York State

Line 171

Enter the average value of total assets as computed in Schedule D, line 72.

Line 172

Deduct the total average value of current liabilities that are properly reflected on a balance sheet. The average value is computed on a quarterly, monthly, weekly or daily basis.

Use the same basis of averaging current liabilities as used to average total assets on Schedule D, line 72. Current liabilities are any liabilities maturing in one year or less from the date originally incurred.

Line 173

Deduct the total net average value of subsidiary capital as computed on line 170, column E.

Computation of the Issuer's Allocation Percentage

Line 178

Enter as total worldwide capital the average value of total assets as computed in Schedule D, line 72, plus the average value of all assets from sources outside the United States which were not taken into account in computing federal taxable income.

When computing assets from sources outside the United States, compute the average value of such assets in the same manner as the average value of total assets in Schedule D, line 72.

Deduct from total assets the total average value of current liabilities maturing in one year or less from the date originally incurred. Compute the average value of such current liabilities in the same manner as the average value of total assets.

Where the assets shown in the computation of the issuer's allocation percentage are different than the assets shown in Schedule D, line 72, attach an explanation.

Section 1085(o) of the Tax Law provides for a penalty of $500 for failure to provide information needed to compute your issuer's allocation percentage.

Real Property Gains Tax

Every corporation with an interest in real property located in New York State must keep a record of the transfer of its stock and report annually every transfer of a controlling interest in its stock and any other information that may be required for the enforcement of tax. Article 31-B, section 1449-a (Tax on Gains Derived From Certain Real Property Transfers).

Controlling interest is either 50% or more of the total combined voting power of all classes of stock or 50% or more of the capital, profits or beneficial interest in that voting stock.

Answer both questions on page 8. If you answer Yes to both questions, attach a separate sheet providing the following information:

- Name, address and identification number of the new controlling stockholder (use social security number for individuals and federal employer identification number for corporations).
- Date transfer was made.
- Location of real property.
- Whether the corporation is a cooperative housing corporation.

Federal Changes and Amended Returns

A banking corporation is required to file an amended return with New York State if its federal taxable income or federal alternative minimum taxable income is changed as a result of:

- a final federal determination, or
- the filing of an amended federal return with the IRS.

The amended return is filed on Form CT-32 or Form CT-32-A with the words Amended Return written across the top. A copy of the federal revenue agent's report or the amended federal return should be attached to the amended return.

A banking corporation that files Form CT-32 on a separate basis, is required to file an amended return on Form CT-32 within 90 days after the final federal determination or the filing of an amended federal return.

A banking corporation that files Form CT-32-A on a combined basis, is required to file an amended return on Form CT-32-A as follows:

- within 90 days (if the final federal determination or the filing of an amended federal return was made on or before November 30, 1993), or
- within 120 days (if the final federal determination or the filing of an amended federal return was made after November 30, 1993).

If you are required to file a federal change or amended return with New York State, attach amended Form CT-32 or amended Form CT-32-A to New York State Form CT-3360, Federal Changes to Corporate Taxable Income.

The Corporate Tax Procedure and Administration provisions of Article 27 and Article 32 Regulation sections 21-1.3, 21-1.4, and 21-4.2, that existed prior to the above 120-day amendment, remain in effect to the extent these laws and regulations are not inconsistent with the 120-day amendment.
