Instructions

How to File — Attach the completed Form IT-280 to the front of your original Form IT-200, IT-201, IT-203, or IT-214. We need the information on it to process your refund as quickly as possible. Once you have filed your return, you cannot file an amended return to disclaim your spouse's defaulted student loan, past-due support liability owed to the Department of Social Services or a past-due legally enforceable debt owed to a state agency. However, you will be notified if your refund is applied against your spouse's defaulted student loan, past-due support owed to the Department of Social Services or past-due legally enforceable debt owed to a state agency and you did not attach Form IT-280 to your return. You will then have ten days from the date of notification to file Form IT-280.

Complete Parts I and II of this form and sign Part III in the space provided. If you are filing Form IT-214 and do not have to file an income tax return, fill in only your name and the social security number of both spouses and sign this form.

Form IT-100 and Electronic Filers — You cannot file Form IT-280 with Form IT-100 or with an electronically filed Form IT-201. However, if you originally filed Form IT-100 or electronically filed Form IT-201, and you are notified that your refund has been applied against your spouse's defaulted student loan, past-due support owed to the Department of Social Services or a past-due legally enforceable debt owed to a state agency, you will have ten days from the date of notification to file Form IT-280. Complete Parts I and II of this form and sign Part III in the space provided. Enter your total federal income on line 1. Your total federal income on Form IT-100 is the total of lines 2, 3, 5 and 6. Enter your federal adjustment(s) to income on line 2. Your federal adjustment to income on Form IT-100 is the line 7 amount. If you filed your return electronically, complete Part II of this form.
