

Nonobligated Spouse Allocation

This is a scannable form; please file this original with the Tax Department.

Who qualifies — You qualify as a nonobligated spouse if you have income (e.g., wages, interest, etc.) and prepaid taxes (e.g., withholding or estimated tax payments) that are to be reported on a joint return or you are going to file a joint return for any refundable credit(s) and (1) you want to disclaim your spouse's past-due legally enforceable debt to a New York State agency and (2) you do not want to apply your part of the joint refund or refundable credit to a debt owed solely by your spouse.

Part I — Information about the joint return for which this claim is filed

Enter the following information exactly as it is shown on the tax return for which you are filing this claim. The spouse's name and social security number shown first on that tax return must also be shown first below.

First name, middle initial, and last name shown first on the return	Social security number shown first	If nonobligated spouse, check, here <input type="checkbox"/>
First name, middle initial, and last name shown second on the return	Social security number shown second	If nonobligated spouse, check, here <input type="checkbox"/>

Instructions

How to file — Attach the completed Form IT-280 to the front of your original Form IT-200, IT-201, IT-203, IT-214, or NYC-210. We need the information on it to process your refund as quickly as possible. Form IT-280 can be electronically filed with any electronically filed returns. Once you have filed your return, you cannot file an amended return solely to disclaim your spouse's defaulted student loan, past-due support liability, or past-due legally enforceable debt owed to a state agency. However, you will be notified if your refund is applied against your spouse's defaulted student loan, past-due support, or past-due legally enforceable debt owed to a state agency and you did not attach Form IT-280 to your return. You will then have ten days from the date of notification to file Form IT-280.

Complete Parts I and II of this form and sign Part III in the space provided. If you are filing Form IT-214 or Form NYC-210 and do not have to file an income tax return, fill in only your name and the social security number of both spouses and sign this form.

If you are filing any one of the following credit forms alone (because you did not claim the credit(s) when you filed your return on Form IT-200, IT-201, or IT-203), you must file Form IT-280 with the credit forms:

- IT-215, Claim for Earned Income Credit,
- IT-216, Claim for Child and Dependent Care Credit,
- IT-217, Claim for Farmers' School Tax Credit

Form IT-100 — You cannot file Form IT-280 with Form IT-100. However, if you originally filed Form IT-100, and you are notified that your refund has been applied against your spouse's defaulted student loan, past-due support, or past-due legally enforceable debt owed to a state agency, you will have ten days from the date of notification to file Form IT-280. Complete Parts I and II of this form and sign Part III in the space provided. Enter your total federal income on line 1. Your total federal income on Form IT-100 is the total of lines 2, 3, 5, and 6. Enter your federal adjustment(s) to income on line 2. Your federal adjustment to income on Form IT-100 is the line 7 amount.

Note: New York Form IT-280 is used only to protect your portion of a joint refund from being applied against a debt owed solely by your spouse. This form should not be used to request innocent spouse relief.

You may qualify for relief from liability for tax on a joint return if (1) there is an understatement of tax because your spouse omitted income or claimed false deductions or credits, (2) you are divorced, separated, or no longer living with your spouse, or (3) given all the facts and circumstances, it would be unfair to hold you liable for the tax. See Form IT-285, Request for Innocent Spouse Relief, for more information.
