

Instructions for Form IT-215 Claim for Earned Income Credit

General information

New for 2002

- The amount of the New York State earned income credit has increased to 27½% of your federal earned income credit.
- Earned income no longer includes employee compensation that is nontaxable.
- The earned income credit will be figured using federal adjusted gross income instead of federal modified adjusted gross income.
- The definition of an eligible foster child has changed. Instead of the whole year, the child must live with you for only more than half the year. See federal Form EIC for more information on who is a qualifying child.
- New federal rules govern a child that meets the conditions to be a qualifying child of more than one person. See federal Publication 596, Earned Income Credit, for more information.

- Please print (using a blue or black ballpoint pen; no pencils, please) or type all X marks and money amounts in the boxes or spaces provided.
- Do not use dollar signs, commas, decimal points, dashes, or any other punctuation marks or symbols.
- Write your numerals like this:

- Carefully enter your money amounts so that the whole dollar amount ends in the box immediately to the left of the cents decimal and the cents amount starts in the box immediately to the right of the cents decimal.
- Make your money amount entries in the boxes allowing one numeral for each area.
Example: If your entry for line 8 is $329.68, your money field entry should look like:

- Leave blank any spaces and boxes that do not apply to you.

Who qualifies

To qualify for the New York State earned income credit you must:

- have claimed the federal earned income credit for tax year 2002; and
- file (or have filed) a New York State return for 2002.

If you are a resident or part-year resident, you may qualify for a refund of any earned income credit in excess of your New York State tax liability. Nonresidents do not qualify for a refund of the New York State earned income credit.

How to claim the credit

In order to claim the New York State earned income credit you must:

- complete Form IT-215 using the information from your federal return, worksheets, and, if applicable, the federal return's federal earned income credit line instructions; or
- if you file Form IT-100, complete the Claim for earned income credit for IT-100 filers on the back of the return.

Filling in your claim form

Form IT-215 has been designed to let us use the latest scanning and image-processing equipment. Rectangular boxes and white entry areas have been printed on the form to guide you in making your handwritten entries. This will enable our scanning equipment to read your return more accurately and let us process it more efficiently. Please spend a moment reviewing the method below for making your entries:

- Please keep your name and address entries within the spaces provided. For example, your first name and middle initial should not go past the vertical line separating them from your last name, and your last name should start to the right of the vertical line. Similarly, your mailing address, ZIP code, etc., should be kept within the boxes provided.

Line instructions for all filers

All resident, nonresident, and part-year resident filers complete lines 1 through 17 as applicable. (Form IT-100 filers - Do not file Form IT-215 unless you have already filed your Form IT-100 for 2002.)

All part-year resident filers must also complete lines 18 through 26.

Line 1 — You must have claimed the federal earned income credit for 2002 in order to claim the New York State earned income credit.

Line 2 — You cannot claim the New York State earned income credit if your investment income is more than $2,550. For most people, investment income is the total amount of:

- taxable interest (from line 8a of federal Form 1040 or 1040A);
- tax-exempt interest (from line 8b of federal Form 1040 or 1040A);
- ordinary dividends income (from line 9 of federal Form 1040 or 1040A); and
- capital gain net income from line 13 of Form 1040 (if more than zero).

For additional information on what qualifies as investment income, see federal Publication 596, Earned Income Credit.

Line 3 — File Form IT-215 with your original 2002 New York State income tax return. If you have already filed your original return, you may file Form IT-215 by itself. If you haven't previously filed your income tax return for this year, you must file one with this claim.

Line 4 — If you filed federal Schedule EIC, be sure to list the name, relationship, number of months the child lived with you, social security number, and year of birth for the same children you claimed on the federal schedule.

Caution: To be eligible to claim the New York State earned income credit, you must provide a correct and valid social security number (SSN) for each child listed on line 4.

If you have applied for a social security number by filing federal Form SS-5 with the Social Security Administration, but you have not received it by April 15, 2003:

- 1) File Form IT-370 requesting an automatic extension of time to file until August 15, 2003. (This extension does not give you any extra time to pay any tax owed. You should pay any New York taxes you expect to owe to avoid interest or penalty charges. For more information, see Form IT-370, Application for Automatic Extension of Time to File for Individuals.) or
- 2) File your return on time without claiming the earned income credit and do not attach Form IT-215. After receiving the SSN, file Form IT-215 and claim the credit.

Be sure to mark an X in the box under the heading Full-time student if your child was born before 1984 and was a full-time student under 24. Mark an X in this box only if you put a checkmark in the Yes box on your 2002 federal Schedule EIC, line 4a.

Be sure to mark an X in the box under the heading Person with disability if your child was born before 1984 and was permanently disabled during any part of 2002. Mark an X in this box only if you put a checkmark in the Yes box on your 2002 federal Schedule EIC, line 4b.

If you marked the box Person with disability, and your qualifying person is 24 years of age or older, you must attach a letter from a doctor stating that the person is disabled. When we receive a letter from your qualifying person's doctor stating that your qualifying person is, by definition, permanently and totally disabled, we will keep that statement on file, and you will not have to provide this information again.

Line 6 — This amount can be found on the appropriate line of the federal return you filed.

Line 7 — If you received a taxable scholarship or fellowship that was not reported on a federal Form W-2, if you were paid an amount as an inmate in a penal institution for work, or if you received an amount as a pension or annuity from a nonqualified deferred compensation plan or a nongovernmental section 457 plan (this amount may be shown on your wage and tax statement(s) federal Form W-2, box 11), enter the amount from your federal Form 1040 instructions for line 64, earned income credit computation step 6, item 2 (subtract line).

Line 8 — Business income or loss, applies only to federal Form 1040 filers. Enter the amount of business income or loss from your federal Form 1040 instructions, Earned Income Credit Worksheet B, line 4b. Do not use a minus sign or brackets to show a loss. Mark an X in the appropriate box on line 8 to indicate if the amount reported is a profit or a loss. Be sure to enter your employer identification number (EIN) for your business. If you have income or loss from more than one business, enter the EIN representing your primary business activity. If your primary business activity doesn't have an EIN, use your social security number.

Line 10 — This amount can be found on the appropriate line of your federal return. However, if you owe the federal alternative minimum tax, enter the amount of the federal earned income credit, as originally computed in the EIC Worksheet in your federal instructions before any reduction for the alternative minimum tax.

Line 11 — For 2002, the New York State earned income credit is 27½% (.275) of the federal earned income credit reduced by any household credit allowed. The rate has already been filled in for you.

Line 12 — This amount represents your earned income credit before it has been reduced by the amount of household credit allowed.

- Form IT-100 filers, stop; the Tax Department will compute your earned income credit for you.

Lines 13 - 15 — Form IT-200 filers, continue with line 13. Form IT-201 or IT-203 filers, complete Worksheet A on the back of the form. Then continue with line 13.

Line 16 — If you are attaching this claim to your original 2002 New York State income tax return and you answered No at line 3:

Line 17 — Complete this line only if your filing status is ③, Married filing separate return.

If you are attaching this claim to your original return and answered No at line 3, show the portion of line 16 that you are claiming as your share of the earned income credit, and follow the appropriate instructions below. Part-year residents only Lines 18 through 26 need to be completed only by part-year residents claiming the earned income credit who are filing, or have previously filed, Form IT-203, Nonresident and Part-Year Resident Income Tax Return, for this year. The amounts for these lines can be found on the appropriate lines of Form IT-203 or Form IT-203-B, Other New York State and City of New York Taxes and Tax Credits, or their instructions.

The earned income credit must first reduce your tax liability to zero before the remaining excess earned income credit is eligible to be refunded. The amount to be refunded will be based on the ratio of resident period income to the combined income from both the resident and nonresident periods.

Line 25 — Divide line 23 by line 24 and carry the result to four decimal places. (Do not enter more than 100% (1.0000) even if your actual result is more than 100%.) If the result is zero percent (0%), you have no remaining excess earned income credit available to be refunded. Do not complete line 26.

Line 26 — If line 25 is greater than 0%, multiply line 22 by line 25. If you answered No at line 3, transfer the line 26 amount to Form IT-203-B, line 52, and attach Form IT-215 to your Form IT-203. This amount represents the refundable portion of your part-year resident earned income credit.

If you have previously filed your 2002 New York State income tax return and you answered Yes at line 3, mail your completed Form IT-215 to:

STATE PROCESSING CENTER
PO BOX 61000
ALBANY NY 12261-0001

A paid preparer must also sign your return.

If you pay someone to prepare your return, the paid preparer must also sign and fill in the other blanks in the paid preparer's area of your return. A person who prepares your return and does not charge you should not fill in the paid preparer's area.
