DELINQUENT DEBT NOTICE

Claim of: State of New York Department of Taxation and Finance

Current Balance: [REDACTED]

Account No. [REDACTED]

Dear [REDACTED]:

This letter serves as formal notice that your delinquent debt has been referred to Performant Recovery, Inc. for collection.

Unless you notify Performant Recovery, Inc., within 30 days after receiving this notice that you dispute the validity of the debt, or any portion thereof, this office will assume the debt is valid. If you notify this office in writing within 30 days from receiving this notice, we will obtain verification of the debt or obtain a copy of a judgment and mail you a copy of such verification or judgment. If you send a request to us in writing within 30 days after receiving this notice, we will provide you with the name and address of the original creditor, if different from the current creditor.

This is an attempt to collect a debt by a debt collector, and any information obtained will be used for that purpose.

New York State – Debt collectors, in accordance with the Fair Debt Collection Practices Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1692 et seq., are prohibited from engaging in abusive, deceptive, and unfair debt collection efforts, including but not limited to:

- (i) the use or threat of violence;
- (ii) the use of obscene or profane language; and
- (iii) repeated phone calls made with the intent to annoy, abuse, or harass.

If a creditor or debt collector receives a money judgment against you in court, state and federal laws may prevent the following types of income from being taken to pay the debt:

1. Supplemental security income, (SSI);
2. Social security;
3. Public assistance (welfare);
4. Spousal support, maintenance (alimony) or child support;
5. Unemployment benefits;
6. Disability benefits;
7. Workers' compensation benefits;
8. Public or private pensions;
9. Veterans' benefits;
10. Federal student loans, federal student grants, and federal work study funds; and
11. Ninety percent of your wages or salary earned in the last sixty days.

▲ Legitimate debt collectors will comply with all state and federal laws outlined here.
